

The CES Regional Social Studies Council proudly offers the

Social Studies Council End of the Year Meeting

Tuesday, April 26th, 2022

Join us online for our CES Social Studies Council for learning, reflection, and connection.

9:00-10:00am

Keynote: Maisa L. Tisdale, President and CEO, Mary and Eliza Freeman Center for History and Community

Maisa L. Tisdale will share about the historic preservation of the Mary and Eliza Freeman Houses and the work to create a safer and healthier “built” environment in Bridgeport’s South End – stressing the importance of historic preservation, community development, environmental justice, and climate change.

10:00am-11:00am

State Standards Update

Steve Armstrong, State Social Studies Consultant, and the project associates team will present about the Social Studies Standards Standards project. This will include a review of the Guiding Principles and an update about the timeline for the standards writing process.